Dreamcoat Name Search

Some of the words used in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor® Dreamcoat have become scrambled in a sandstorm: JOSEPH, JACOB, POTIPHAR, REUBEN, SIMEON, DREAM, SLAVE, and PHARAOH. Can you find them? (Words may be written forward, backward, vertically, horizontally, or diagonally. Solution on page 10.)
Where is the real Joseph?

Of the six Josephs shown below, only two of them are exactly alike. Can you spot them? (Solution on page 10.)
Hieroglyphics: What they are, and how to make your own

Unlike our modern day alphabet, Egyptian hieroglyphs were drawings that often represented sounds as well as individual letters. Some samples are shown below:

A  B  C or S  C or K  D  E
F, PH or V  G  G or J  H  I or Y  L
M  N  O  OO, U or W  P  Q (KU)
R  T or TH  X (KS)  Z  CH  SH
LET’S DO IT!

If you had to make an alphabet entirely of symbols, what symbols would you use? Below you’ll find 26 boxes (and an extra 10 for numbers). Draw or sketch your own characters and numbers. Then, share with friends to create your own alphabet.

A  B  C  D  E  F

G  H  I  J  K  L

M  N  O  P  Q  R

S  T  U  V  W  X

Y  Z

0  1  2  3  4

5  6  7  8  9
“Help the 7 Cows” Maze

The 7 cows have become lost. Can you help them find the way back to their food? (Solution on page 10.)
Things we can learn from Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor® Dreamcoat

The story of Joseph can be found in the Bible in the book of Genesis (chapters 37 to 46), as well as in the Qu’ran, where it is the story of Yusuf al Karim (Joseph the Wise). Both stories help explain sibling rivalry (a competition between children of the same family) and what we can learn from it.

• “Dad always liked you best.” Joseph’s brothers are jealous of him. Have you ever felt jealous of a brother or sister or friend? How does it make you feel? And when you feel confident in yourself, do you still feel jealous of others?

• Dreams are “short videos” of things that we deal with daily. Joseph’s ability to understand (interpret) dreams helped him. Do you have dreams that seem to make no sense? Though they are actually random thoughts, it can be fun to discuss your dreams with friends.

• At the end of the story, Joseph has forgiven his brothers for selling him as a slave. Have you ever had to forgive someone for a bad thing they said or did to you? Was it difficult to forgive that person?

Notes:
Here is a place to write down what you thought of the show.

Joseph (Ian Patrick Gibb) shows off his multicolored coat to the Narrator (Darcie Roberts), his father Jacob (Nicholas F. Saverine) and his jealous brothers.

Mrs. Potiphar (Brooke Lacy) has her eye on Joseph (Ian Patrick Gibb), while her millionaire husband (Nicholas F. Saverine) dictates to servants (Catherine Helm, Becca Petersen).
